DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1 and 3-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, “a control circuit” is inferentially included and it is unclear if the applicant intends to positively recite and claim the control circuit. The examiner has interpreted the claim as containing the control circuit and the claim should be amended accordingly. It is suggested to insert “a control circuit adapted to be responsive to an activation source selected from the group...combinations” before the “means for ceasing” paragraph and change “by a control circuit” to “by said control circuit”.

In claim 13, “the quality factor” lacks antecedent basis. It is unclear what the quality factor relates to in the means for ceasing the flow.

In claim 16, “a control circuit” is inferentially included.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102/103

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3762

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1, 11, 12, and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Tsitlik et al (5217010). Tsitlik shows the means for delivery, transmitting, and receiving as the electrodes 36 and 42 or 62 and 59. Tsitlik uses conventional circuitry with pacing logic 32 or 54 being the claimed control circuit and the pacing output stage 30 or 58 being the claimed means for ceasing the flow. The pacing logic being responsive to the processor 37 or 59 and capable of meeting or inherently being responsive to a DC source since it is conventional circuitry.

In the alternative, Tsitlik discloses the claimed invention except for the control circuit being adapted to be responsive to a DC activation source. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the control circuit (pacing logic) as taught by Tsitlik, with the control circuit being adapted to be responsive to a DC activation source since it was known in the art that control circuitry (pacing logic) is adapted to be responsive to a DC activation source to provide power efficient and easily controlled circuitry since pacemaker circuitry operates using DC power from a battery that does not require inefficiently converting the DC power into AC control signals.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 16-29 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Claims 3-10 and 14 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection necessitated by amendment.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
